FALL 2012

October 8–11

Nurturing and Educating Transcultural Kids.

October 16

Mission in Acts 16.

Ms. Barbara Hufner-Kemper, psychotherapist and United Methodist missionary, White Plains, New York, creatively studies the mission encounters recorded in Acts 16 to help participants consider their own understandings of Christian mission in this special one-day seminar. Cosponsored by United Methodist General Board of Global Ministries. $50.

October 22–25

Themes in Worldwide Christianity: Bible, Theology, Renewal, and Other Religions.

Dr. Michael McClymond, Saint Louis University and an OMSC senior mission scholar, explores concrete examples of how Bible commentaries, theologies, renewal movements, and interreligious relations take shape on a worldwide scale. Cosponsored by Evangelical Covenant Church World Mission Department and Park Street Church (Boston, Massachusetts).

October 29–November 1

A Biblical Theology of Mission and Practical

Lessons in Church Planting.

Dr. Timothy Kiho Park, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California, draws on Scripture and years of experience to teach cross-cultural church planting. Cosponsored by Missio Nexus.

November 5–9

Critical Developments in African and Asian Christianity, 1800–1950.

Dr. Andrew F. Walls, honorary professor, University of Edinburgh, and former director of the Centre for the Study of Christianity in the Non-Western World, starting from a Methodist focus, explores developments common to the missions of the period—OMSC’s seventh Distinguished Mission Lectureship series—five lectures with discussions. Cosponsored by Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

November 12–15

Church and Mission in Europe—East and West.

Dr. Peter Kazminić, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, South Hamilton, Massachusetts, and Evangelical Theological Seminary, Osijek, Croatia, examines the new context and new roles for churches and missions in a changed Europe, both East and West. Cosponsored by Christian Reformed World Missions.

November 26–29

Iranian Shi‘ite Muslims and Christianity.

Dr. Sasan Tavassoli, Evangelical Church of Iran, introduces Shi‘ite Islam and some of the ways that contemporary Iranians interact with the Christian faith. Cosponsored by Greenfield Hill Congregational Church (Fairfield, Connecticut) and Trinity Baptist Church (New Haven).

December 3–6

The Gospel of Peace in Dynamic Engagement with the Peace of Islam.

Dr. David W. Shenk, Eastern Mennonite Missions, explores the church’s calling to bear witness to the Gospel of peace in its engagement with Muslims, whether in contexts of militancy or in settings of moderation. Cosponsored by Mennonite Central Committee.

December 10–13

Leadership, Fund Raising, and Donor Development for Missions.

Mr. Rob Martin, First Fruit Institute, Newport Beach, California, outlines steps for building the support base, including foundation funding, for mission. Cosponsored by Latin America Mission.

JANUARY STUDENT SEMINARS ON WORLD MISSION

January 7–11, 2013

Missionaries in the Movies.

Dr. Dwight P. Baker, Overseas Ministries Study Center, utilizes both video clips and full-length feature films to examine the way missionaries have been represented in the movies over the past century. Cosponsored by Evangelical Covenant Church (Lafayette, Indiana).

January 14–18

The Drama of God’s Mission.

Dr. Gregory R. Perry, Covenant Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri, considers two primary questions to identify coordinates by which God’s people can evaluate their roles in God’s mission: (1) Are our improvisations faithful to the story of Scripture? (2) Are our improvisations fitting to the stage on which they are played out?

January 21–25

Culture, Values, and Worldview: Anthropology for Mission Practice.

January 28–February 1

The City in Mission.

Dr. Dale T. Irvin, New York Theological Seminary, considers the city in the mission of God. The seminar includes a day trip in New York City.
