Dissertation Notices

To search OMSC’s free online database of over 6,300 dissertations in English, compiled in cooperation with Yale Divinity School Library, go to www.internationalbulletin.org/resources.

January 2014 Student Seminars on World Mission

Interested in distance learning? An online option is being offered. Details: see the ad on page 235 and go to www.omsc.org/january.

Dr. Paul De Neui, North Park Theological Seminary
Communicating Christ in Buddhist Contexts.

Dr. Michael Rynkiewich, Asbury Theological Seminary
Church, Mission, and Land: An Anthropological Approach.

Dr. M. Daniel Carroll R. (Rodas), Denver Seminary
Diaspora and the Bible: Migration and Mission.

Dr. Kyu Sam Han, Chodae Community Church, Norwood, N.J.
The New Testament Church in Mission—Then and Now.

Full information—including content descriptions, costs, schedules, and links to register—may be found online at www.omsc.org/seminars.
E-mail: study@OMSC.org

November 4–8, 2013
The Primal Religions in the History of Christian Mission.
Professor Andrew F. Walls (above, right), University of Edinburgh, Liverpool Hope University, and Akrofi-Christaller Institute. OMSC’s eighth Distinguished Mission Lectureship series—five lectures with discussions. Cosponsored by The Mission Society. $175.

November 18–21, 2014
Christian Art in World Christianity.
Dr. Volker Küster, Johannes-Gutenberg University, Mainz, Germany, and an OMSC senior mission scholar. $175.

December 2–5, 2013
Peace in Dynamic Engagement with the Peace of Islam.
Dr. David W. Shenk, Eastern Mennonite Missions. Cosponsored by Eastern Mennonite Mission and Mennonite Central Committee. $175.

February 24–28, 2014
Common Missionary Challenges: Communication, Conflict, and Marriage.